FABERGÉ COLLECTION

Tiles inspired by the works of Carl Fabergé

The Golden age of Fabergé

The legendary Fabergé Easter eggs were the creation of Carl Fabergé, goldsmith by special appointment to the Imperial Crown of Russia until 1917. The custom of giving these precious gifts began in 1885 when Czar Alexander III presented the first egg to his wife Empress Marie Feodorovna in 1885, an annual tradition continued by his son Nicholas II. Fabergé and his company were commissioned to create ever more sumptuous eggs, intricate jewellery and gifts such as ornamental picture frames and enamelled gold and silver gilt boxes.

The Fabergé Collection

An inspired tile collection

Fabergé learnt his considerable skills from his father and goldsmiths in England, Germany and France. During travels as a young man he forged a fascination with Ancient Greece, Rome, and the Renaissance and Baroque periods. Artistic and architectural elements from these eras greatly influenced his work: fleur de lis, wreaths, crowns and swags are frequently used in his highly embellished objects d'art.

Taking inspiration from the beauty of Fabergé's creations, we have now produced the Fabergé Collection of tiles and borders that echo those beautiful and classic elements. The designs, traced in Charcoal Grey on a highly reflective Colonial White background, are completed with exceptionally fine detail, with definition unmatched by any tiles we have yet created. Just take a look through a magnifying glass!

Add your own individual touch

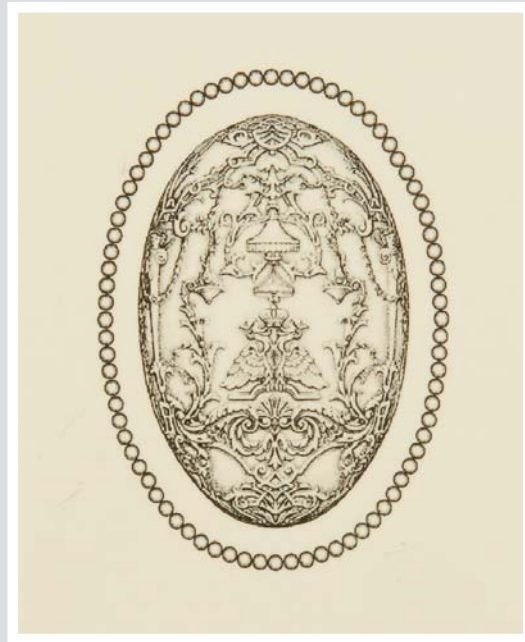

There is also an opportunity for you to personalise the collection by adding your own initials in a beautiful, matching script within a cartouche, to perfectly fit in a border or field of tiles.

Co-ordinating tiles

To complement this elegant collection we have introduced a co-ordinating set of tiles and mouldings in a new colour, Charcoal Grey. This rich, deep grey is perfect for harmonising with classic and modern sanitary ware in bathrooms and appliances in kitchens. You can, of course, choose other colours from the wide range available in our Artworks Collection.

All the tiles and mouldings are suitable for use on walls in kitchens and bathrooms, but could also be placed in dining rooms, hallways, conservatories – the choice is yours. The Fabergé Collection will certainly add a distinct aura of grandeur wherever it is installed.
